DiRenzo & Bomier Adds Associate Attorney Gina Vollmer to Staff

Neenah-based law firm experiencing continued growth despite state's high unemployment rate

Neenah, Wis., October 21, 2009 – DiRenzo & Bomier, LLC, a leading law firm that has been servicing Northeastern Wisconsin for more than 50 years, is pleased to announce it has added Gina Vollmer to its growing team of attorneys. Vollmer joins the firm as an Associate Attorney and will be assisting both business and individual clients in the areas of real estate, business transactions, estate planning and commercial foreclosure.

“We are pleased to have Gina join our firm and believe her business acumen, coupled with her personable client relations style, will be a good complement to our existing team of attorneys,” said Roy Fine, Partner at DiRenzo & Bomier.

Vollmer, a 2009 graduate of Marquette University Law School, worked at a creditor’s rights firm focusing on foreclosure and bankruptcy issues prior to joining DiRenzo & Bomier. She also served as a Judicial Intern for the U.S. District Court - Eastern District of Wisconsin and worked as a corporate counsel intern for two successful Wisconsin corporations. Vollmer’s diverse work experiences allowed her to gain valuable expertise in several key areas including: employment law, labor law, business transactions, commercial contract review, licensing agreements, data privacy and real estate.

“I chose to work at DiRenzo & Bomier because I wanted to work at a firm that has built its reputation and success on the quality of work and representation provided to its clients,” said Vollmer. “As a native of the Fox Valley area, I am looking forward to reconnecting with the community and helping my clients with their legal issues.”

During the past five years, DiRenzo & Bomier has added several attorneys to its team including Kathleen Healy, Meghan Healy, Jeffrey Berzowski and Rachel Fitzgerald. Their areas of practice include administrative law, family law, employment law, workers’ compensation and personal injury.

“Despite the state’s current high unemployment rate, we have been in the ideal position of increasing our staff for several years now and hope to continue that trend in the future,” said Fine. “We are proud to employ a diverse staff of qualified attorneys who share a common goal of being advocates for our clients.”
